Welcome to Mr. Salyers's Class

On this page, you will find everything you need to succeed in my class or to keep up to date with your student in my class. Use the navigation tabs at the top to browse assignments, classroom projects, resources, and much more. If you need to turn in an assignment or you need to send me a message, feel free to call me at school, or for a quicker response, use the contact form.

Start by going to Crestenglish.com

As you can tell, I like to use humor in my classroom. I believe education should be fun for students and I believe that students will even allow me to challenge them better when they enjoy learning. What's more, I believe that students will even allow me to challenge them.

I am looking forward to each and every day with all of my students. Thanks for being a contributing part of our shared educational experience.

Using the menu at the top, you may drag and drop elements to your sight. Here, I have used a paragraph with picture.

Each Unit should have 4 pictures.

3- What I learned
1- Something I liked.

We will add pictures from your daybook for each of these. So, its important to take notes.

For each picture, you should have a title and a well-written paragraph (10 sentences) that explains what you learned and why it is important.

When you have finished working, click the orange publish button in the top right corner. If asked to choose your domain, click "Use a Subdomain of Weebly.com and type in your username.

Significant Moment #2-"Student Made Title"

Students will upload pictures from their daybooks of moments of significant learning in each unit. This can be notes from a homework assignment, notes from classroom lectures, reading notes, assigned work, or anything that has contributed to the students understanding of the material. The student will then title
